MINISTER'S LETTER

I write this after a long, but interesting week as a commissioner to the General Assembly, which took place in Edinburgh from Saturday 16th May to Friday 24th May.

Elsewhere in this Lych Gate you will find my report about all that was discussed and decided at this significant Assembly.

The theme for all the services and morning worship sessions was: 'Follow me' – taken from Jesus' call to his disciples. If we are to take serious the call to be 'with Christ', we need to come behind him and let him lead the way. This, as for the first disciples, will involve giving up those things that provide us with security and comfort, for an unknown adventure. Jesus said in Mark 8: 34-35 that whoever wants to be his disciple, needs to deny himself, take up his cross and follow him. This applies both to ourselves, as to us as a congregation. In the same breath Jesus went on to say: 'whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and the gospel, will save it.' If all we are doing in our 'radical action plan' is trying to salvage what is left to be salvaged in order to keep our Kirk going, this will likely result in ultimate death.

However, if we are prepared to step out of our comfort zones in faithfulness and hope, ready to do and be the church in ways that are understandable for those outwith the church, then perhaps we may find new life. In 'losing our life' – losing the things that we are familiar with and hold dear, for the sake of the gospel – we may yet save our lives and the life of the Kirk. 'Saving the Kirk' cannot just be a matter of structural reform and things other people at other levels need to fix for us. It begins and ends with our commitment to Jesus and our willingness to share the good news of God's kingdom come, where we live with the people we meet. 'Saving the Kirk' is a matter of our own personal willingness to grow in faith, service and witness. There are plenty of opportunities to do this by coming along to Sunday worship and study groups when they are organised, by volunteering in different aspects of our church life and by bringing our faith into our daily lives and relationships. You will see that we for the second year will be running the Terrace Summer Drop In. If you can help with that, or invite a person to come along to that (and go with them!) that would be one small way you can help the church's witness to the village.

Your fellow traveller,

Hanneke

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK

Christian Aid Week: A big THANK YOU to everyone who supported Christian Aid Week this year – church coordinators, collectors, counters and, of course, the 780 households in Bridge of Weir who showed their support by donating. Including the retiring collections at St Machar's and St Mary's, the fantastic sum of £5,920 was collected, and a further £870 will be received by Christian Aid through Gift Aid. This is a substantial increase on last year. So, thanks to everyone for their support.

CONGRATULATIONS

Ruby Wedding - Congratulations to Scott and Coral McLaughlin who were married in St. Machar's Ranfurly Church on Friday 18th May 1979.

Many of Coral's family have been married in our beautiful church. Coral wants to record a "Big Thank you" to Scott for their many happy years of married life along with lots of fond memories too.

BRIDGE OF WEIR BOYS BRIGADE

The Boys Brigade year ended as it usually does with the Display. This took place at Bridge of Weir Primary School on Friday 10 May as an enjoyable occasion well supported by family and friends. The highlights were the Juniors reprising their award winning marching display, the Anchor Boys enlisting a group of parents to join in their games and a spirited performance of Queen's – We will rock you by the Company Section.

Winning the marching was only one part of the Junior's success this year as they went on to win the prize for the best company in the Paisley and District Battalion. This is from a total of twenty-four companies so the Bridge of Weir Company Section finishing seventh was not a disgrace either. For the third year in a row the Bridge of Weir Company also received a certificate for increasing the number of boys in the company which is an achievement when numbers are falling generally.

Although the regular Thursday and Friday nights have come to an end, Boys Brigade activity will continue through the summer and we hope to have a day of water sports on Loch Lomond for the Company Section. We are also planning two expeditions.

The highest award in the Boys Brigade is the Queens Badge closely followed by the Presidents Badge and we currently have six boys in the Bridge of Weir Company with their Presidents Badge. By the end of this year we hope to have six with Duke of Edinburgh bronze award, three with Duke of Edinburgh silver and two or three with their Queens Badge. These are all awards which have to be earned with service for others, developing a skill and taking part in a sport. They also involve expeditions for two days and one night or three days and two nights, sleeping in tents, self-catering (no prizes for the quality of the food) and finding the route. It is really pleasing to be at Paisley Abbey to see young men who have spent many years in Boys Brigade, often since primary school, receiving their Queens Badges from the Lord Provost.

Carriden Church Vacancy Committee have announced Rev Thomas Waterton Lund, St Machar's Bridge of Weir, to be their sole nominee for the vacancy, caused through the transference of Rev. R Reid Robertson to Aberdeen.

The Rev. T W Lund, who is in his early thirties, has accepted nomination, and will probably preach at Carriden Parish Church early in January. He has been minister at St Machar's for only two years.

The Minister-Elect.

The Rev. Thomas Waterton Lund, M.A., B.D. is aged 31 and is married. After seven years in business, during which he qualified as a Chartered and Certified Secretary, he entered the University of Edinburgh to study for the ministry, this fulfilling a boyhood ambition. He graduated in arts in 1937 and in divinity in 1940, when he was awarded the Senior Fellowship as first man of his year throughout his divinity course and gained the First Gunning Prize in the B.D. examination. He gained his practical training for the ministry in the course of various assistantships, in St Columba's Parish Church, Burntisland, in Lothian Road Church, Edinburgh and in the South Church Stirling. In 1940 he was ordained and inducted to the Parish Church of Saint Machar, Bridge of Weir.

Dr Duncan was commissioned in 1856 by the Church of Scotland to the Church in Canada, where he did noble work, and held the highest positions during nearly 30 years. On his return to this country he was minister at Merchiston, Edinburgh, and in 1884 undertook the task of endowing the church at Bridge of Weir. His work is well known, and the esteem in which his saintly life is held has found frequent expression of late not only in Scotland, but throughout the colonies of Canada, India, and Australia. The window is by Messrs Meikle & Son, Glasgow.

The Windows in the Church are recorded in a booklet written by Maurice L Gaine in August 1996.

It was built in the year 1125 under the direction of Bishop Reinald of Winchcester and built in an Anglo-Norman style, probably by English craftsmen. The Cathedral is dedicated to St Swithan.

The original building was badly damaged by a fire in 1272 and in 1300 a new chancel was built in a Gothic style. It is the best preserved medieval church in Norway and is the only Norwegian Cathedral from the Middle Ages that has retained its original appearance.

This Cathedral is situated right in the centre of town between the main harbour and the Breivatnet Lake, so it was only a short walk for

from Tearfund

Thank you so much for letting us know that you have sent a gift of £370 to Tearfund by bank transfer on behalf of Freeland and St Machar's Ranfurly Churches, Bridge of Weir. We are so grateful for your support.

When we receive this donation we will use it to help people affected by Cyclone Idai in Mozambique, Malawi and Zimbabwe.

Your gift will be put to rapid use. The money will provide emergency assistance to those affected by this devastating cyclone.

Over 1.5 million have already been affected by Cyclone Idai. Tearfund is already working on the ground, in Malawi, Mozambique and Zimbabwe, with our local church partner organisations and we are assessing the needs of people affected.

Together, our church partners will be providing help wherever there is the most desperate need.

In Zimbabwe, flash floods have destroyed crops and livelihoods, with around 200 people injured.

'The hardest hit areas are in Chimanimani and Chipinge districts,' said Earnest Maswera, Tearfund's Country Director in Zimbabwe. 'The situation is dire, the damage to infrastructure is beyond comprehension, the need is enormous. The prayers and material support of the global church will go a long way in bringing relief to the hurting in Zimbabwe.'

You can find updates on the situation, and the response of our partners at www.tearfund.org/latest

Thank you for living out your faith in such a practical and life-affirming way. You can be certain your gift is going to make a huge difference, at a time when so many have lost everything.

Please do let us know if you would like to receive a letter or email confirming receipt of your gift in addition to this email acknowledgement.

Thank you once again for your support for our work - it is hugely valued. Please feel free to contact us if you have any queries.

With every blessing

from The Inverclyde Family Contact Centre

I am touched to have received this kind gift of £370 from the joint services your congregation and Freeland held during Holy Week. We are very grateful indeed to our church family in Presbytery and beyond for the warmth of their response to our financial troubles. It gives a much-needed boost to our finances but also a tremendous lift to our morale to know that you, beyond the Inverclyde boundary, are thinking of us and of the children and their families in our care. Should you wish to have someone come to speak of the work, we should be happy to arrange it.

Meanwhile you may like to know that last year we welcomed 72 children from 60 families and most were enabled to build a relationship with their separated parent.

21 of the children were under 3, the youngest only 3 weeks when she came in November 2017. 17 families built enough trust to leave us able to make their own arrangements for contact.

Tragically, we lost a Mum with residence from a drug overdose but the child was by then secure enough with his Dad and paternal grandmother to go to live with Dad while the maternal grandparents came to terms with their bereavement. Many parents had issues with drugs, alcohol and their mental health and take a lot of support, but it is wonderful to see how some troubled people can turn their lives round for the sake of their children. Thank-you for helping our work.

Wishing every blessing on you all,

Yours sincerely,

UNIFORM STALL

On Saturday 17th June Church volunteers 'manned' a uniform stall at the Bridge of Weir Primary Fayre. A fun and successful morning was had with the proceeds being donated to the school PTA.

THE MASQUERADERS

On the evening of 27th April, The Masqueraders (and friends) entertained a packed church hall once again with a mixture of songs, plays and sketches. The opening medley “Viva Latin America” introduced Caribbean pictures, pineapples, congas and sunshine. At this point Christine Haddock gave a very interesting and informative outline of the work done by our chosen charity - Glasgow Children’s Hospital Charity.

Confusion & upset arose during the first play: “The Tender Touch”, where three sisters (Carole Cairney, Helen Bullen & Liz Campbell) got entirely the wrong idea when their father (Anne Yeaman) announced there was a surprise and celebration in the offing.

Next it was time for some audience participation, with Carole Cairney & Liz Campbell leading the community singing. Then Anne Yeaman and Helen Bullen treated us to a sketch sitting in a play pen and getting up to all sorts of mischief.

Following a few songs from Alex Bullen, we were treated to the second “pantomime” of the evening: “Fairy Tales” set in Nevernever Land and never was there such a pantomime as this. Red Riding Hood, Hansel & Gretel, Snow White with the kindly Huntsman and of course the obligatory Queen, plus a scene from Cinderella that nearly brought the house down. If that was not enough the Ugly Sisters had to put in an appearance. The whole “pantomime” was swept up by the grumpy, complaining cleaner aka Margaret Richardson, who made a guest appearance.

A number of prizes were then presented to the holders of the lucky programmes drawn by Hanneke Marshall & Christine Haddock before Francis Hancock gave the vote of thanks. The evening’s finale was another medley of songs “Out on the Town” from the Masqueraders.

The proceeds from ticket sales, along with donations received for programmes enabled a donation to be made to the church for use of the hall, and a cheque for £550 to be presented to Glasgow Children’s Hospital Charity.

2ND BRIDGE OF WEIR GUIDES

It seems a long time since the 2nd Tuesday Guides spent a fun evening making pancakes on foil plates over candles whilst the hall was being refurbished. We have had a busy few weeks learning a variety of new skills with assistance from Bishopton Scout Leaders. Evenings have been filled with much listening quite a lot of action with some very good end results. A variety of camp gadget making with sticks and string. An evening was spent away in Bishopton having fun constructing a substantial rope bridge.

Then last Saturday we had a day at South Newton which was super fun. The girls were in pairs and tasked with making and lighting a fire with no paper or fire lighters allowed. Many matches, dry leaves, twigs, wee and bigger sticks later all had a good fire and were able to cook their hamburger lunch. We played wide games, erected a tent which came in handy when the rain arrived. To conclude the day we had an archery session which proved popular even though it was a little drizzly.

GUILD NEWS

Guild Outing

On Monday 20th May the Guild went on the annual outing. This year 26 people were taken by bus to New Lanark, where we had a power point presentation on the working of the mills, some free time to look around, followed by high tea in the New Lanark Mill Hotel. Everyone seemed to enjoy their day and arrived back home safely.

Guild Fayre

On Saturday 11th May the Church Guild held its annual Spring Fayre. We had a hard time of it, as we were in competition with Houston Fayre and Kilmacolm Agricultural Show, but the sun shone on us and we had a good turn out of friends who enjoyed the various stalls with a cup of tea or coffee. A very sincere thank you goes to all our stall holders, bakers, helpers and the Gala Queen and her 2 attendants who opened the Fayre. The amount raised was £711.

It was with much excitement and a very heavy case (mostly due to the weight of my laptop and the Blue Book that contains all the reports) that I set off from Johnstone station on Friday 15th May to head to Edinburgh.

This was the first time that I was a commissioner to the General Assembly and it was going to be a significant Assembly in the life of the Kirk.

The previous year a 10 year Strategic Plan had been presented by the Council of Assembly (who oversee much of the ongoing work of the various national councils throughout the year). However, at the GA2018 this Strategic Plan was rejected by the General Assembly for being too vague and lacking the sense of urgency that was needed in light of ever increasing problems. These problems are amongst others increasing shortage of ministers, surplus of buildings, shrinking church membership and large annual deficits run up by the various councils. It was felt that at all levels (national, regional and local) urgent and radical change is needed in order to give the Kirk some chance of not imploding altogether. And so the Council of Assembly was sent back to the drawing board to come back to this year's assembly with a Radical Action Plan, to be implemented over a 3 year period. Also a Special Commission was appointed, with experts from out with the Church of Scotland's organisation in order to write a proposal for Structural Reform (in particular of the organisational and trustee structure at national level).

The third strand was for the General Trustees to bring a set of guidelines to help presbytery planning regarding what church buildings are to be retained and which to be disposed of moving forwards – the working title being: 'well equipped spaces in the right places'. This is not yet complete but we were updated on the consultation which is underway and the direction of travel to be expected.

All these reports and others were included in the Blue Book which commissioners get sent either in hard copy or electronic form at the beginning of May. So I had already had quite a bit of homework to do before the start of the Assembly. Preferring to read and highlight on print, I'd ordered the hard copy, hence the weight of my suitcase!

Each day, starting from the Saturday at 9:15 am (!) various reports were on the agenda, and each report had any number of deliverances (a decision that if approved will be taken and enacted) which had to be debated in turn. Each report would be presented by the relevant convener, then there would be opportunities for questions and comment, as well as proposed amendments to the deliverances, or in some cases 'counter motions'. This all seems quite technical and there is a particular way in which these discussions were conducted, but that is quite essential when you are gathered with more than 800 in a room! Time limits were set for how long people could speak to make their point, but nonetheless, only a few days in, various reports had to be carried over to later days as we ran out of time to discuss them. Most days we went on until 6:30 pm – so no slacking! On Sunday there was no business conducted, but there was a service in St Giles Cathedral and in the afternoon the Heart and Soul event was held in Princess St Gardens. A whole array of church and parachurch organisations were presented in marquees (you need to be prepared for rain!) and anyone could attend this event. There were also music performances and some discussion tents. I went to a lovely ecumenical service of Renewal of Baptismal Vows in St Cuthbert's Church and then walked back to the apartment in Bruntsfield I shared with an elder from Kilbarchan.

If you want to read full reports or summaries, I suggest you take a look at the Church of Scotland website or read the next Life and Work. However, I will list here some of the key decisions taken during the GA2019:

STRUCTURAL REFORM:

Objective: moving human and financial resource away from the central offices to the regional (i.e. presbyteries)

The regional (presbyteries) to be better equipped and resourced in order to support the local congregations, eg. with buildings, safeguarding, finance issues.

- The local congregations to be freed up to concentrate on worship, discipleship and mission. 20-30% cuts to be achieved at central level.
- Ministries Council and Mission and Discipleship Council to merge.
- World Mission Council and Church and Society Council to merge.
- Crossreach social care to become 'arms length' organisation.
- Council of Assembly from 1st of June to be replaced by 12 Assembly Trustees, to properly hold other councils to account in relations to budgets and priorities.
- 43 presbyteries to be merged into around 12 large presbyteries.
- At local level 'term' eldership and smaller kirk sessions for better leadership

RADICAL ACTION PLAN:

Objective: in tandem with the structural reform to prioritise mission and discipleship of the local church.

- Growth Fund to replace Go For It fund in order to fund mission initiatives developed at local and regional level.
- Another intake of Path of Renewal programme for ministers and congregations, applications opening in June
- Planting 100 Fresh Expressions of church in the next 10 years.
- Inventory taken of all resources for office bearers, worship, youth work and so on; all to be organised and made available in one place: avoiding duplication
- Equipping local churches to focus in reaching under 40's
- Providing training at all levels for volunteers, office bearers and for ministry
- Presbyteries have been given advisory numbers of ministers that are expected to be available by the end of 2023; they are to plan for adjustment in charges.

- Changes in ministry training to be planned for in order to improve the relevance of academic training to the actual work of ministers.
- All ministers in training to be trained in pioneering as part of their course.

And as I wrote above, the General Trustees are working on a report 'Well equipped spaces in the right places' to be brought to next year's assembly in order to help presbyteries decide how to reduce the number of buildings and which ones have the most potential for being put to good use in the 21st century.

This list is not comprehensive, but it gives a sense of what has been agreed. There were some things added, that came from the floor, such as a suggested change to the vacancy process, which would mean that any new vacancies could only be given a reviewable tenure of up to 7 years, rather than unrestricted tenure. This found support in the Assembly so now the Ministries Council have to consider bringing a proposal along these lines to the GA2021. Hardly feels radical, but it might create the kind of flexibility that is needed in the present circumstances.

One of the other things agreed is that how the General Assembly is organised and run needs to be reconsidered by the new Assembly Trustees; making it likely a smaller and more focused (and therefore cost effective) affair. So I don't know when I will next be a commissioner, but I very much enjoyed being part of it this year and I am hopeful that some of the big changes proposed will be set in motion and in time come to benefit the life of the church.

It was clear from various reports that for many years, sometimes decades it was already known that change (and what change) was needed, but it just hadn't been done. I guess this is human nature, and possibly due to the way we conduct our business in a Presbyterian system. It is however not inevitable that nothing changes, as we are after all a 'reformed' church. We should be forever reforming, in order to stay faithful to our calling, which is to follow Christ in worship, service and witness. We all, at all levels, including the local and the personal, need to be the change that we long to see!
